if ventricular tachycardia is detected, the icd will try to correct it study personnel were instructed not to provide consumers any information about the drug, other medications they might or might not take, or other details that could influence their behavior